An Inflected Ending is an extra letter or letters added to the end of a base word (noun, verb, or adjective).

First chunk the word into its parts. Read the base word and the ending. Then blend the two to read the whole word.

EXAMPLES

smarter  scared  judging  cries
happiest  crutches  plans  rubbed
beginning  braver  funniest  steps